

INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENT

> CONFIRMATION OF PLACEMENT REQUEST FORM

If you are studying at an Education provider in Western Australia you will require a Confirmation of Placement from the Department of Education in Western Australia to secure your child's dependent visa. This Confirmation of Placement does not guarantee you an enrolment in a Public Primary or Secondary school.

TAFE International Western Australia manages the placement of overseas fee-paying students on behalf of the Department of Education.

To receive a copy of your Confirmation of Placement you are required to provide the following documents to TAFE International Western Australia:

- > Completed Confirmation of Placement Request Form
- > Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) for the Primary visa holder
- > Copy of the Primary visa holders passport details page
- > Copy of the child/children's passport details page

Please submit to admissions.tiwa@dtwd.wa.gov.au, CoP will not be issued until TAFE International Western Australia have received this form signed with documents attached.

ANNUAL SCHOOL TUITION FEES

Mainstream tuition fees for overseas fee-paying students (including holders of scholarships that also sponsor dependant children). These fees(only) are waived for students enrolled in full-time postgraduate Masters & PhD studies at a recognised Western Australian university for the duration of their studies only. All other additional fees, contributions and charges apply.

Fees in addition to tuition fees

Fees for specialist provision or support for students with a disability

Students with disability may require additional support to participate in an educational program. Prior to enrolment, the level and costs are determined on a case-by-case basis by the relevant School of Special Education Needs. The maximum parent contribution for a student requiring specialist disability support is $25,000.

English Language Support

Additional fees will be charged to meet the cost of access to additional language support. The fee for an Intensive English Centre is $3,000 per year and the fee for English as a Second Language (ESL) support is $1,500 per year.

Other contributions, charges and fees

In addition to tuition fees and fees for specialist support, overseas students must pay the following directly to the school:

- > contributions, charges and fees that are payable by local students enrolled at the school;
- > Personal items such as school and sports uniforms, items for individual student use, stationery, travel to and from school, excursions/incursions, books, swimming programs and optional courses of study all incur additional fees;
- > leasing or purchasing notebook computers and the School Curriculum and Standards Authority Fee.
